Shechem The valley in the middle

שכם

The important noun שכם (shekem) means shoulder, and one's shoulder was considered the seat of one's burdens, whether physical or metaphorical. Curiously, though, the denominative verb that came from this noun, namely שכם (shakam), does not mean "to shoulder" in the sense of to carry something, but rather to rise early or to make an early start. This seems to suggest that a person's burden was considered a thing of voluntary dedication rather than something forced upon this person.

THE YAHUWAH TRIANGLE

A GREAT PYRAMID, BABYLON AND THE COMMANDMENTS OF EDEN

WHY SHECHEM?

- After Joseph has his dream concerning the sun, moon and 11 stars bowing down to him, his brothers become angry. They leave to go "tend their father's flock in Shechem." Jacob/Israel later sends his beloved son Joseph to go find them (Genesis 37). The word Shechem means "diligence/early rising". While looking for his brothers in the place of early rising, he meets "a certain man" who tells him that they have departed for Dothan, which means "their double sickness". The English word "diligence" means: "the attention and care legally expected or required of a person (as a party to a contract)". So, they left their place of carefully tending to their father's flock, to go to a place of "double sickness" in order to lay in wait for their brother, whom they plotted to kill and destroy.

Jos 24:15

And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

Jos 24:16

And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

A Great Chasm see Luke 16

Luk 16:19-31

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime received thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.
