12 Tribes

Ruben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, Benjamin

We see a son (Yeshua)

We Hear from the son

We want to Join with the Son

We acknowledge our own Judgment that is coming

We wrestle with our selves and the Father

When we let him win we are joined to his family

This leads us to Joy in our Obedience

As we gain wisdom to do the work by our actions

We find it our Destiny to Occupy as we become

The Fruit that the Father has added

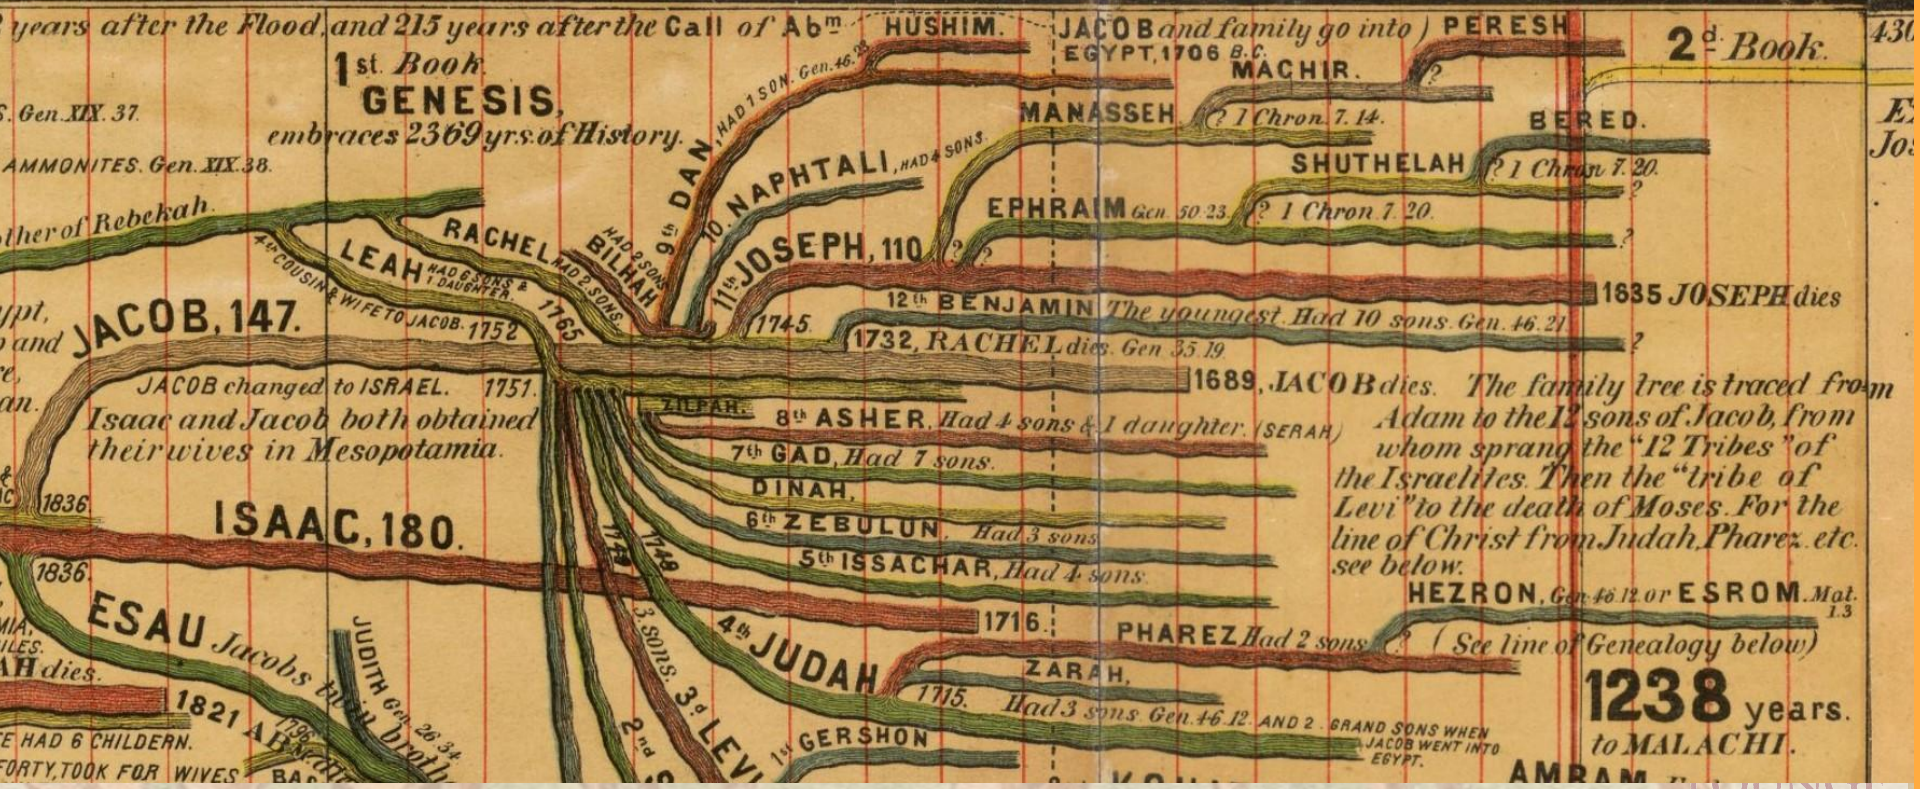

son of His Right Hand

At The End Miketz

Both had miraculous births

Both Obedient to their fathers, were about their Father's business

Pure, no sin was written about them

Sent by His father to check on his brothers, Yeshua sent to the 12 tribes

At The End Miketz

Joseph and Yeshua go to Egypt

Joseph was the same as pharaoh, he spoke for the Father, represented the father

Both were not recognized until the time was right

SABBATH

At The End Miketz

Both were Rejected by his Brothers/children

Both had garments left behind, shroud, coat of colors

Conspiracy to kill, Judas, Judah Sold them out for money 20 pieces and 30 pieces

At The End Miketz

Both went peacefully and did not fight

For both, blood was shed and clothes were torn

Both put in the ground, a well and a tomb

At The End Miketz

Both were raised up

Both were beaten, stripped, persecuted for the sake of his people

By his wounds we are healed, both the brothers and us

At The End Miketz

The coat of Colors was a sign of Royalty, both were king like and second in command on paper but in reality in charge of it all, just like Joseph

Joseph's dreams=the fulfillment of Yeshua

Both Went away to prepare a place for there family them, then repent and are ashamed for the hurt it has caused their father

At The End Miketz

Brothers/Children reject Both were servant leaders

Both elevated above others

Baker, Butler like the Thief on the cross, one was remembered and one was eternal death

Joseph prepared the Bread of Life, Yeshua was the bread of life

At The End Miketz

Both were tempted to sin, both rejected the sin

Both were innocent but had to suffer because of it

Both save their families by something that seemed like a terrible punishment

At The End Miketz

Both had families that did very little to help until the end after their sin convicts them

Both falsely accused

Both went before the king, both were silent

At The End Miketz

The grain is unmeasurable just like the children in the promise.

Both judge the children of Israel and have forgiveness for them.

Judah willing to stand in the gap for his brother-willing to lay down his life

Meal, Feat Washing-Upper Room kind of moment

Both yearn for the fellowship of the children of Israel

At The End Miketz

Both have a wedding like celebration to commemorate the reunification of the family

Both have brothers that are unaware that the feast they have been celebrating were for their brother. Modern Jews keep the feast but don't recognize Him

This part has not been fulfilled

Both were in a way "resurrected from the dead". Quotes for Joseph only

At The End Miketz

Both are in charge of the harvest of the Wheat

Both are solving the issue of a famine, Joseph is a physical famine. Yeshua represents solving the spiritual famine and is the bread of life

Both open up the storehouse

Both are the answer to life in their generations. The only way was through them

Right hand of Pharaoh, right hand of the Father

Matthew 3:

“Voice from heaven “This is my beloved son whom I am well pleased” Loved by his Father more than other brothers” (this is because He was the only sold out to his father)
